

Press Release 10 July 2018

ICTS Consult appointed Corporate Partner of The Security Institute.

London, 10 July 2018.

ICTS Consult is delighted to announce that it has been appointed a Corporate Partner of The Security Institute, the UK's largest professional membership body for security professionals.

Since 2000 the Institute has been working to promote the highest possible standards of integrity and professional competence in the business of security.

Ashley Fernandes, Managing Partner, ICTS Consult, commented, "We are delighted to have been appointed a Corporate Partner of The Security Institute, which further demonstrates our commitment to and support of the Institute's aims and objectives. The Institute's own values are closely aligned to our organisation's and we look forward to supporting both the Institute and Rick Mounfield and his team with the great work they are doing."

Ashley Fernandes, Managing Partner, ICTS Consult was presented ICTS Consult's Corporate Partnership certificate by Baroness Henig CBE, President of the Security Institute, at The Security Institute's prestigious annual Gala Awards Dinner held on 27 June 2018 at London Zoo in Regents Park.

The Security Institute Corporate Partners are organisations which:

- Support the professional security community
- Are committed to professional excellence in security practice
- Stand committed to continuing professional development for all security personnel
- Support the development and implementation of professional standards across the security sector
- Support the mission of The Security Institute to ensure that security professionals are recognised as being of equal standing to professionals in all other categories within modern organisations

Rick Mounfield, Chief Executive, The Security Institute, commented, "I have been consistently impressed with the proactive and altruistic values that ICTS Consult and the wider ICTS family demonstrate. The Institute's mantra of respect, recognition and professionalisation are in their DNA. I have followed the development of ICTS Consult over the past 14 months and I am keen to support their growth whilst maximising their input into our own capabilities for the benefit of our membership. Apart from being true professionals, they are also great fun to be around!"

End.
